

Exploring the Landscape of Older Age: A Workshop for Women Over 55

Otherwise

October 1st 10am-4pm

Now that you've been on Earth for over 55 years, how do you see the gifts of older age? What models do you reach for as you move through time? What stories comfort or inspire you? Join us as we take time to explore this new identity, and find words and images to move forward.

Christian McEwen is a freelance writer, workshop leader and cultural activist originally from the UK. Her book, World Enough & Time, is now in its sixth edition.

Kathleen Bowen is a practitioner with the Center for Biography and Social Art, which helps people identify their authentic strengths through art and conversation.

Location: TBA Northampton, MA
Sliding scale $95-$75

Register by September 15th
kb@kathleenbowen.com